Frequently Asked Questions

Members now have FREE unlimited access to FOUR essential business services that are designed to support and protect your business.

What do the four services include and how do I access them?

Advice Line

One number giving unlimited access to experienced advisors offering practical advice on HR, employment law, health & safety, legal issues plus tax and VAT matters.

Call 01455 852037. You will be asked for your name and company name.

Website

Access to over 750 free template documents covering HR, employment law, health & safety (H&S) and legal matters. The website also includes HR and H&S health checks.

You will need your personal username and password. If you don't know it you can call us or the advice line for assistance

What can I use the service for?

To help you resolve any issues that you have with HR and employment law, health & safety, legal or tax. However, you don't have to wait until you have an issue or a serious problem before you call. The advice line will help answer any questions you may have.

Are there any additional services?

Yes there are! If you feel you need a more bespoke service our partners at Quest can create a solution that is perfectly aligned to your needs. Call 01455 852028 for more information. Please note that additional services may have charges.

Who you gonna call?

The Chamber Advice Line of course!

The advice lines are here to help you... and not just if you have a serious problem or issue. They can help you with any questions that you may have, whether they be positive or negative. These are the kind of subjects the advisors can help you with.

Be aware

You need to manage your employment affairs – there may be consequences if you don't

This is why you need HR support

Whilst the threat of financially crippling employment tribunals has diminished there are still many pitfalls facing employers which can have serious financial consequences. All employers should be aware of these threats and if you need advice on how to avoid the unpalatable results please call the Advice Line and get practical advice from the HR advisors.

Topic	If you do this	These are the consequences
Contracts of employment	Failure to give employees a contract of employment	It will cost you 2-4 weeks pay £950 for 2 weeks - £1,900 for 4 weeks pay
Flexible working	Breach of flexible working regulations	Compensation due to the employee up to a maximum of 8 weeks pay or £3,800
National minimum wage	Failure to pay the national minimum wage	Fine of up to £20,000 per person and being publically identified on the Government Naming and Shaming list
Right to work in the UK	Failure to check that employees have the right to work in the UK	Increased penalties now in force and applied on a sliding scale. For a first breach in a 3 year period the penalty is £15,000 per illegal worker. For a second or subsequent breach the starting point is £20,000
TUPE	Failure to consult and inform on TUPE	Fines of up to 13 weeks pay – not capped at statutory rate
Unfair dismissal	Dismissal of an employee that is challenged and deemed to be unfair	No minimum limit on a weeks pay. Based on a capped amount of £475 per week
